TREASURER'S REPORT

Fly Club had their fly show in September, they paid to use the Clemmer Building & for their campers staying on the property. Also made a small donation, thanks to the Fly Club for this. Several bills to pay, Chalmers, costs of Sundance Dinner. Rob G has offered to collect debts owed to the club. Ie: Farmer's field rental, rental for RV storage, etc.

MEMBERSHIP

Renewals start October 1 to December 31. New range cards & scan system, you can pick up your new cards at the Club, please return your old card when you do this.

FIELD

Small game opened in the North on September 15. Grouse, rabbits, squirrels, etc. Check the regs. Southern WMU's open on September 25.

ENTERTAINMENT/WAYS AND MEANS

We should start advertising for the New Years Eve Dinner Dance. Jamie has confirmed the band "Side Street Reunion" will be playing. Sundance Balloons were happy with their dinner. It was determined that the bar would share tips with the kitchen staff when doing private events. This will be discussed with Lea at the upcoming Bar meeting on October 7.

Some new chairs in the shed could and will be used for raffle prizes. Wings volunteer list of known volunteers to be made up by Jamie and sent to Sukhminder with a brief description of duties. Jamie to call Helen (karaoke lady) to have her back. Jamie confirmed with Dean Godin that he will continue to so sauces, spices, and veggies.

Wings date changed to October 25.

Halloween Bingo date changed to November 1st.

Club Clean up October 11th.

BAR

Bar committee meeting to be held on Tuesday, October 7.

PROPERTY

2 cement benches were donated to the club. These Memorial benches are in memory of Kevin Hotchkiss. 2 more benches were offered and accepted with thanks to the Cerberus RC Support Group. This group will place the benches where directed and assemble them.

The cleaners will be given a list of expected things that they should be doing.

SPORTS AND INNER-CLUBS

Jamie Avon who plays darts with us at the club on Wednesday nights, expressed interest in bringing his group of dart players from Monday nights to our club. After discussion and phone call with Jamie, we gave him the go ahead to have darts on a Monday night. Most likely to start mid-September. NA donation to the club to be made at the end of their dart year.

LOWER GROUNDS

Aaron Kemp did a great job procuring and installing the new card access system at the range. He saved the club close to 3 or 4 thousand dollars. The card access system is now functional. New cards are at the bar. Great job Aaron, thank you.

BULLETIN

Info for New Years Eve Dinner Dance should be submitted to Lea. We should start advertising now.

UNFINISHED BUSINESS

New signs should be made to replace the deterioration ones for the Moser Hall, Lounge and Clemmer building.

SERGEANT AT ARMS

No issues

NEW BUSINESS

Kim suggested we make posters of events that we have. Ie: Club Dinner in March, Annual Pig Roast in August. Sukhy will send Kim the file with the club logo on it. Lea will make up some posters.
